#	Intervenor's Comment(s)	CPUC Discussion
15	A4NR had planned to file its compensation claim for its sanctions motion after the Commission's final decision on A4NR's still pending Petition for Modification, but D.15-12-058 clarified that D.15-12-016 has resolved the proceeding except for pending petitions for modification and an application for rehearing. A4NR has severed all PFM-related costs, and will defer seeking their reimbursement pending a final Commission decision on that matter.	Verified. A4NR may file a claim for intervenor compensation within 60 days of a decision or order of the Commission.

PART II: SUBSTANTIAL CONTRIBUTION*A. Did the Intervenor substantially contribute to the final decision (see § 1802(i), § 1803(a), and D.98-04-059).

Intervenor's Claimed Contribution(s)	Specific References to Intervenor's Claimed Contribution(s)	CPUC Discussion
1. One day after SCE late-filed a Notice of Ex Parte Communication describing a meeting nearly two years earlier between its Exec. VP Steven Pickett and CPUC President Michael Peevey, A4NR filed a Motion requesting that the Commission investigate the extent of appropriate sanctions for violations of Rule 1.1 and its predicate, Rule 8.4.	A4NR 02/10/15 Motion.  ALJs' 04/14/15 Ruling noted A4NR Motion, p. 3, and agreed that SCE's Notice "offered little information about the content of the meeting," p. 5.  ALJs' 04/14/15 Ruling also agreed that the Commission has the authority to seek additional information regarding a late-filed or undisclosed ex parte communication for purposes of evaluating possible sanctions, including whether the breach of Rule 8.4, under the totality of circumstances, is also a breach of Rule 1.1, pp. 4-5.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's claimed contribution.
2. A4NR's 02/10/15 Motion sought disclosure of SONGS-related communications between SCE and the Commission, as well as internal SCE communications discussing such communications.	A4NR 02/10/15 Motion, p. 9.  ALJs' 04/14/15 Ruling ordered SCE to produce additional information and documents, including internal SCE communications, pp. 5-6.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's claimed contribution.
3. A4NR's 02/10/15 Motion requested the opportunity to respond to any SCE submittal.	A4NR 02/10/15 Motion, pp. 9-10.  ALJs' 04/14/15 Ruling authorized any party to use SCE's submittal in support of any otherwise compliant Petition for Modification, p. 6, and specifically authorized A4NR to file an Amended Motion for Sanctions within 5 business days of SCE's submittal, p. 6 ¶2,	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's claimed contribution.
4. A4NR's 05/06/15 Amended Motion identified informational deficiencies in SCE's response to the ALJs' 04/14/15 Ruling.	A4NR 05/06/15 Amended Motion, pp. 10-16.  ALJ's 06/26/15 email Ruling directed SCE to submit additional information to supplement its earlier submittal, p. 8.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's claimed contribution.

5. A4NR's 05/06/15 Amended Motion alleged multiple violations of Rule 8.4 and two violations of Rule 1.1, including false testimony by SCE President Ron Litzinger.	A4NR 05/06/15 Amended Motion, pp. 25-26. ALJ's 08/05/15 Order to Show Cause Ruling found 10 violations of Rule 8.4, p. 35, and two "possible Rule 1.1 violations," p. 43, including Litzinger's "incorrect statements which misled the Commission," p. 46. D.15-12-016 determined "SCE violated Rule 1.1 as a result of the false statement made by Mr. Litzinger under oath," COL 8. D.15-12-016 imposed financial penalties for "eight Rule 8.4 violations and two Rule 1.1 violations," COL 11.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's claimed contribution.
6. A4NR's 05/06/15 Amended Motion argued that SCE's failure to properly disclose the Pickett/Peevey communications in Poland should be treated as a continuing violation.	A4NR 05/06/15 Amended Motion, pp. 24-25. D.15-12-016 characterized "SCE's grossly negligent acts and omissions" as "a continuing violation" (COL 7) and applied penalty against SCE for "826 days of the continuing violation arising from SCE's acts and omissions related to Mr. Pickett's meeting with Commissioner Peevey," COL 14.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's claimed contribution.

B. Duplication of Effort (§ 1801.3(f) and § 1802.5):

	Intervenor's Assertion	CPUC Discussion
a. Was the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA) a party to the proceeding? <sup>1</sup>	Yes.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's statements regarding duplication of effort.
b. Were there other parties to the proceeding with positions similar to yours?	Yes, although these parties focused upon reopening the D.14-11-040 settlement rather than formal sanctions against SCE.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's statements regarding duplication of effort..
c. If so, provide name of other parties: ORA, TURN, Ruth Hendricks, CDSO, and WEM.		Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's statements regarding duplication of effort..

<sup>1</sup> The Division of Ratepayer Advocates was renamed the Office of Ratepayer Advocates effective September 26, 2013, pursuant to Senate Bill No. 96 (Budget Act of 2013: public resources), which was approved by the Governor on September 26, 2013.

d. Intervenor’s claim of non-duplication: A4NR was the sole “Moving Party” (ALJs’ 04/14/15 Ruling) in seeking formal sanctions against SCE. None of the parties identified above joined A4NR’s sanctions effort or made responsive filings, although both ORA and Ruth Hendricks submitted comments on the ALJ’s 08/05/15 Order to Show Cause Ruling which were aimed at reopening the D.14-11-040 settlement.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor’s statements regarding duplication of effort..

C. Additional Comments on Part II (use line reference # or letter as appropriate):

#	Intervenor’s Comment	CPUC Discussion
II: d.	Because it is a separate matter still pending, A4NR does not address herein the much greater commonality among the parties identified in II: c. above regarding the question of reopening the D.14-11-040 settlement.	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor’s statements regarding duplication of effort.

PART III: REASONABLENESS OF REQUESTED COMPENSATION

A. General Claim of Reasonableness (§ 1801 and § 1806):

a. Intervenor’s claim of cost reasonableness: The question of appropriate sanctions, and proper construction of multiple statutes and Commission Rules, was litigated with considerable intensity between A4NR and SCE. The resulting outcome was a $16,740,000 payment to the General Fund by SCE, some sixteen times larger than the highest previous Commission sanction for ex parte communication disclosure-related violations. By that measure, the A4NR’s litigation efforts were extremely cost-effective, and establish a significant Commission precedent.	CPUC Discussion Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor’s statements regarding cost reasonableness.
b. Reasonableness of hours claimed: Because of A4NR’s requests, SCE was required to turn over extensive documentation of its communications. Interpretation of that evidence, as well as painstaking efforts to properly construct multiple statutes and	Intervenor did not timely file the request for

Commission Rules, were intensively litigated between SCE and A4NR. A4NR's sanctions-related filings included (1) the 02/10/15 Motion Seeking Investigation of the Extent of Sanctions to be Ordered against Southern California Edison Company for Violation of Commission Rules 1.1 and 8.4; (2) the 03/09/15 Reply to SCE's Response to A4NR's Motion Seeking Investigation of the Extent of Sanctions to be Ordered; (3) the 05/06/15 Amended Motion for Sanctions; (4) the 06/01/15 Reply to SCE's Response to A4NR's Amended Motion for Sanctions; (5) A4NR's 08/10/15 Response to the ALJ's Order to Show Cause Ruling; (6) A4NR's Opening Comments on the Proposed Decision Affirming Violations of Rule 8.4 and Rule 1.1 and Imposing Sanctions on SCE; and (7) A4NR's Reply Comments on the Proposed Decision. A4NR's ability to prevail required a careful marshalling of evidence as well as significant legal research, and the hours expended were reasonable.	intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's statements regarding reasonableness of hours claimed.
c. Allocation of hours by issue: This compensation claim is supplementary to the one filed by A4NR for its contribution to D.14-11-040, and consequently the allocation of hours in Part III: A.c. of that earlier claim should be modified as follows: Phase 1 issues: 44%  Phase 2 issues: 26%  Phase 3-4 issues: 18%  Motion for Sanctions: 10%  General: 2%	Intervenor did not timely file the request for intervenor compensation. The Commission has not verified Intervenor's statements regarding allocation of hours by issue.
